UKZN marks milestone merger

A dinner to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the University of KwaZulu-Natal since the merger of Durban-Westville and Natal universities was held last night. Sharing a light moment at the event are, from left, UKZN council chairwoman, Phumla Mnganga, deputy vice-chancellor of teaching and learning, Professor Renuka Vithal, and head of humanities, Professor Cheryl Potgieter.

PICTURE: RAJESH JANTILAL

This material has been copied under a DALRO licence and is not for resale or retransmission.