Professor Mergan Naidoo is an Associate Professor and Head: Clinical unit in the Discipline of Family Medicine at UKZN and Wentworth Hospital. He is also currently the Academic Leader for Teaching and Learning in the School of Nursing and Public Health and chairs the Education, Science and Technology Committee of SAMA and the MCQ Committee for the College of Family Physicians. He has a special interest in Maternal Health, Primary Emergency Care, the care of HIV positive patients and Healthcare Worker Education. His PhD focused on maternal surgical safety in KZN. He is a provincial maternal death assessor for the NCCEMD and has been involved as a master trainer in the ESMOE programme. He has published in the field of HIV in pregnancy.

Date: Friday, 9th March 2018
Time: 7h30-9h30
Venue: Public Health Seminar Room, 2nd Floor George Campbell building, Howard College

Please RSVP with Sunga Chumia on Chumia@ukzn.ac.za or 031 260 4770 by 7th March 2018
Refreshments will be served.